Kia ora Reremoana School families

A short update only today.

This afternoon the Prime Minister announced that Auckland will move to Alert Level 3 at 11:59pm on Tuesday 21 September. Until then, we remain at Alert Level 4.

When we do move to Alert Level 3, you legally must stay within your household bubble unless for essential personal movement, including going to work and going to school.

As previously advised, school will be open from Wednesday, for only the small number of children who need to attend (This update included the information to determine eligibility.) Thank you to the families who contacted me advising they will need to send their children to "Bubble School", and for subsequently completing the form sent on. Please look out for an email around midday tomorrow with all the information you need regarding bubble school organisation for child/ren attending.

Distance Learning will continue to be delivered as it has been up until this point, and will remain in place during term time, until we can return to school in Level 2. If your child's teacher is a bubble school teacher, then they will be being responded to and supported by another member of their team. We are all hoping we will get to Level 2 in the school holidays!

To celebrate Alert Level 3, some light entertainment for those of you who are not following the school Facebook pages - a video made by our staff for families to enjoy and appreciate how much we miss being in your lives!

Kia kaha!
